

TYPE OF WASTE
	HAZARDOUS	FLUORESCENT BULBS BATTERIES OIL	CLEAN BROKEN GLASSWARE	EMPTY CONTAINERS (non P-Listed)
	1) characterize waste type & volume 2) select the proper container	select the proper container	select the proper container (cardboard collection box must have a liner)	when empty , rinse (in accordance with the wastewater discharge policy)
WHAT	3) label the container -haz waste label -unique identifier	do not label as Hazardous start a logsheet	only clean, uncontaminated glassware !	remove or deface label
TO	4) start a logsheet 5) insure compatibility	provide secondary containment	when full, securely tape the lid on with heavy duty tape total weight must be <20 lb.	discard in the garbage
DO	6) provide secondary containment	store properly/safely don't overfill	mark "trash" on the container do not overfill!!	NOTE: empty containers of P-materials can be triple-rinsed or placed in the garbage
WITH	7) don't overfill	dispose when full or every 90 days	take to dumpster or place near garbage can for custodial staff	empty containers of P-Listed materials to be disposed of by ES&H Office
IT	8) dispose when full or every 90 days	call x6162 for pick-up	as this material goes to the landfill, ensure no hazardous materials are included
			NOTE: custodial staff

	call x6162 for pick-up		will not handle any red, yellow, or orange containers of any type
--	------------------------	--	---

ES&H Home || ES&H News & Events || NREL ES&H Manual || ES&H Reference Ma